

Why You Should Consider Becoming a Soccer 5 League Referee!

Being a soccer referee can be a rewarding and fulfilling experience. Not only do referees play an essential role in maintaining the integrity of the game, but they also gain various benefits from their involvement in the sport. From staying active and healthy, learning the rules of the game, developing leadership and decision-making skills, making a positive impact, connecting with others, acquiring a lifelong skill, learning from experienced referees, getting paid for doing something you love, improving communication skills, and giving back to the community. So, if this interests you, please read the following information on this flyer to learn more about how to become a referee, upcoming certification courses scheduled this Spring & Summer, and much more so you can JOIN US ON THE SOCCER FIELDS!!

New to refereeing and need more information? Use the tabs located in the green banner at the top of the Oregon Soccer Referee Organization (OSRO) website. Once you have completed the New Referee Course and all required tasks, passed the test, and are eager to start working, contact your local youth soccer club Referee Assignor and they can help you get started with game assignments.
